

ADRIAN ALAN

Fine Art & Antiques

A Large Gilt-Bronze Mounted Mahogany Vitrine

Circa: Circa 1890

228 x 170 x 65 cm (89<sup>3</sup>/<sub>16</sub> x 66<sup>7</sup>/<sub>16</sub> inches)

Mahogany

England

1890

An Impressive Large Gilt-Bronze Mounted Mahogany Vitrine.

This impressive vitrine has a shaped cresting rail carved with acanthus above a pair of shaped doors with bevelled glass panels and canted corners applied gilt-bronze flowerhead paterae. The side panels are of corresponding design above an egg and dart frieze and shaped apron centred by a gilt-bronze acanthus and shell mount. The whole is raised on four tapering square section reeded and gilt-bronze mounted legs terminating in block feet.

The interior with silk back panel and three glass shelves.