A Set of Four Gilt-Bronze Wall Lights in The Adam Revival Style.

Each wall light has a tapering body with bell husk decoration and an acorn terminal supporting a classical fluted urn with three finely cast rams head masks, each issuing a spiral twist and acanthus cast candelarm terminating in gardooned sockets. The urn is surmounted by a fluted lid section with fine palmette decoration and terminating in an acorn finial. The wall lights are further adorned with chains of finely cast bell husks.
