

ADRIAN ALAN

Fine Art & Antiques

A Fine Pair of Mounted Marquetry Inlaid Card Tables With Porcelain Plaques

Circa: Circa 1870

74 x 93 x 57 cm (29¹/₄ x 36⁵/₈ inches)

Gilt-Bronze marquetry and Porcelain

England

1870

A Fine Pair of Gilt-Bronze Mounted Marquetry Inlaid Card Tables With Sèvres-Style Porcelain Plaques.

Each table has a rectangular fold over top with lobed corners, finely inlaid with floral bands and stylised scallop shells. Below is a pullout action frieze mounted to each side with finely painted Sèvres-Style porcelain plaques and fluted tapering legs with inlaid square capitals and turned tapering feet. The fold over top opens to reveal a baize lined playing surface within a gilt-tooled red leather border and shallow ebonised counter wells to the corners.