

ADRIAN ALAN

Fine Art & Antiques

An Important Oak, Giltwood And Bronze Four Door Grande Vitrine

Circa: Circa 1870

267 x 254 x 60 cm (105 1/4 x 100 inches)

oak Brass ormolu

France

1870

An Important Oak, Giltwood And Bronze Four Door 'Grande Vitrine'.

The projecting cornice finely carved with a frieze of linked coquillage centred by a sculptural giltwood cresting of a crowned shield displaying the double 'L' monogram above a Fleur-de-lis of Louis Philippe and flanked by playful putti, below three pilaster uprights each with gilded Corinthian capitals and trailing foliate relief, frame two sets of brass faced bronze doors fitted with plate glass and opening to an interior containing three shelves, the sides similarly glazed and the whole raised on a plain square section base.